GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1904.

NO. 87.

CIRCUIT COURT LEWIS ACQUITTED

Cromwell Case Not Pressed—Jas.
Howard Convicted

THE JUDGE IN FOR J. SINESS.

Several Cases of Liquor Selling
Was Disposed of Monday.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Court convened Friday morning and the Lewis murder case was taken up again (this case was begun Wednesday afternoon) and the entire day was consumed in the trial of it. It was late in the afternoon when the attorneys on both sides announced that they had no more evidence to offer.

Attorneys Thrasher for the defendant and Calhoun for the State addressed the jury, and when Judge Willis finished delivering his charge it was 7 o'clock, night, and the jury went to the room and court adjourned until Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

SATURDAY'S SESSION.
Court convened Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock, His Honor Judge J. T. Willis presiding.

It being announced to the court that the jury was ready to render a verdict in the Lewis murder case the same was called into court and a verdict of "not guilty" was rendered, and Sim P. Lewis, who had been under indictment for the murder of Jacob J. H. Dodge since July, 1900, was again a free man. The jury was composed of the following persons: H. L. Beville, F. W. Polk, W. J. Jones, W. R. Sharnau, R. C. Philpot, T. J. Ham, S. M. Mixson, W. C. Newbern, P. V. Smith, J. B. Douglass, John Chesnut and J. B. Warren.

Peter and Abe Rutledge were then on a charge of coin stealing. They were defended by Attorneys Evans Haisle and R. E. Davis, and Attorney W. S. Broome appeared for the State. A large number of witnesses were sworn for both the State and the defense. The case went to the jury about noon, and a verdict of "guilty" was quickly brought in.

The court then adjourned until 9 o'clock Monday morning, Feb. 29, 1904.

MONDAY'S SESSIONS.
Court convened Monday morning at 9 o'clock, His Honor Judge J. T. Willis presiding, and States Attorney Benj. P. Calhoun and other officers of the court in their places.

Attorneys Thrasher and Broome made application to the court to have the bond estreatment proceedings in the case of J. M. Fryer, the High Springs blind tiger runner who had twice forfeited his bond, set aside. Mr. Broome said that Fryer's bondsmen would pay all costs of delay, etc., and that Fryer would come in for trial. Judge Willis, who is certainly showing himself to be the right man in the right place, informed the attorneys for Fryer's bondsmen—Thrasher and Broome—that they would have to show better cause for setting aside estreatment proceedings than the mere fact that the bringing of Fryer to court would cost the county nothing. He said Mr. Anderson, bondsmen, should not have ignored process of the court in the matter; he should have produced the body of Fryer in court or show good cause at the proper time for not doing so.

The court also informed Mr. Broome that he was mistaken about Fryer's failure to appear costing the county nothing. Anything that causes delays in court costs the county something.

The case of the State vs. William Cromwell, aggravated assault, was called. The State's witnesses—including prosecuting witness—being absent the case was not pressed.

John Johnson was arraigned for selling whiskey in a dry county, and a plea of guilty was entered.

The case of the State vs. James Howard, alias Duncan Howard, selling whiskey in a dry county, was called, and the following persons were selected and sworn as jurors: T. J. McKinney, J. A. Martin, Alex. Howe, L. L. Hill, C. J. Mixson, J. A. McKinstry.

Deputy Sheriff Wynn and one other witness swore that they saw defendant sell whiskey and accept money for same. Defense introduced no witnesses except the defendant himself who swore that he did not sell. Deputy Sheriff Chester was called to the stand—by the State—and swore that defendant admitted to him on day of commitment trial—that he sold the whiskey and accepted the money so that he could buy more whiskey with it.

The jury was out but a short while and returned a verdict of guilty.

The case of the State vs. Wesley Hall, selling whiskey in a dry county, was called, and continued to the next term of the court because an important States witness was in Alabama, and could not be secured at the present term.

more time, had neglected to make proper application at the proper time, was told so by the court, and the case set for Tuesday—today.

The gentlemen who had been summoned to serve as jurors—some of the best men in the city or county—were too clean to suit the saloon attorneys, one of whom looked at them and then spoke of the court as "a little temperance society," so they had one of their clients to make an affidavit by which they hoped to make the Judge believe that Sheriff Fennell was biased against the defendants that he had not done his duty in the matter of summoning jurors. The act would have been a reflection upon the Sheriff had not its source been considered, but the source being considered it was a nice compliment.

It is remarkable how hard blind tiger fellows and their attorneys die, but they are dying; surely dying; and their fight against an honest sheriff and decent jurymen will not last long. The court and the States Attorney are on to their racket. Court adjourned to convene again this morning.

Death of Young Boy.
Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baird, in this city Friday morning, and took therefrom an object of love, in the person of Emmet, the two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Baird.

Little Emmet had been seriously ill several days, and his death was hourly looked for. Death resulted from pneumonia, and the funeral and interment took place Saturday afternoon.

The Star joins other friends in sympathizing with the bereaved parents and other relatives and friends in this hour of great sorrow.

Saloons Are in the Way.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Feb. 25.—The effort of the Board of Trade of Cordele to secure the Atlantic and Brunswick Railroad shops, has, it is said, caused a three-cornered fight, involving Fitzgerald and Waycross. Fitzgerald wants the shops, but cannot get them, on account of having saloons. If the saloons are abolished the city has a chance to get the new industry, providing the Atlantic and Brunswick officials decide to move from Waycross. The monthly pay roll is something close to $80,000; quite an item.—Savannah Morning News.

HAIR GROWER.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21, '99.
Dr. S. B. Giddings,
Dear Sir:—Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your soc. bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and '98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,
J. W. HAYNES.

59 Hicks St.
State of Florida,
County of Alachua,
City of Gainesville.

Personally appeared before the undersigned, a Notary Public, in and for the State of Florida, at large, S. B. Giddings, who being duly sworn by me deposes and says that the above testimonial was sent to him by mail by J. W. Haynes, a man whom he had never seen or heard of, also that he had no knowledge of the man ever having used or procured the Unparalleled Hair Grower, and as far as he knows no one had influenced him to send it, and that the man has never received anything for sending it.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of November, A. D. 1902.

HOLLOWAY AND SHEATS AGAIN

State Papers Go for Sheats and Praise Holloway.

A FEW OF THE EXTRACTS.

Herald, Times-Herald, Citizen-Reporter and Advertiser for Holloway.

[CONTRIBUTED.]
Tampa Tribune: Professor Holloway will be the next State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Palatka Times-Herald: Cesar Sheats claims that he is touring the State inspecting the schools, but in reality he is merely looking after his old political fences.

DeFuniak Herald: Who ever heard of Sheats inspecting the schools except during a campaign?

Palatka Times-Herald: It will take something more than the mudslinging of the Cesar Sheats crowd to dim the lustre of the record of Prof. Holloway, the people's candidate for State school superintendent.

Lake City Citizen-Reporter: Hon. Wm. M. Holloway of Gainesville, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was an appreciated visitor at our office last Saturday. Mr. Holloway is a thoroughly competent man—a pleasant, affable gentleman, and is making a number of friends in this vicinity. Since 1895 he has been superintendent of schools in Alachua county, the duties of which office he has honorably discharged. His re-election to the office twice in succession, without opposition, is evidence of the esteem and confidence in which he is held by the people of Alachua county.

Palatka Times-Herald: During the continued absence of Cesar Sheats from Tallahassee, the office boy, perhaps, looks after the school interests of the State.

W. M. HOLLOWAY.
Live Oak Democrat: W. M. Holloway, of Gainesville, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in our city Tuesday, meeting the people. Mr. Holloway is one of the leading educators of the State, qualified in every way to fill the position to which he aspires, and if all signs don't fail he will be the next State Superintendent.

LET MR. SHEATS RETIRE.

Holmes County Advertiser: The Advertiser feels that Mr. Sheats is entitled to much credit for the work he has performed for Florida in the interests of education, and we would not detract one iota from his deserved credit. But, because Mr. Sheats has merely done what it was his duty to do, to wit: give his very best efforts for the elevation of the standard of education in the State, does that bring the State under obligations to continue him in office ad infinitum? No, indeed. There are others. And among the tried and tested educators of Florida, none stand higher, if indeed as high, as Prof. W. M. Holloway, of Gainesville, Fla., Superintendent Public Instruction of Alachua county, also who is the opponent of Mr. Sheats for State Superintendent.

The fact is, Mr. Sheats has undoubtedly reached the limit of his influence, if not his ability, and should retire. The superior ability manifested by Prof. Holloway as a promoter of educational interests mark him as the man who should step out into a wider field, and apply his genius for educational work to the further promotion of State interests in educational work.

He only, as compared between the two, is able to take that work from where Sheats has carried it, and advance it to higher planes of usefulness. This is almost self-evident, if not quite so, therefore needs but little argument to prove it.

Holloway by all means should receive the primary vote—and we believe he will. At any rate we are confident that Holmes and Walton will give him their support, for they are quite willing to allow Sheats a resting spell.

Going to Ocala.

The household goods belonging to Mr. L. W. Jackson are being loaded into a car preparatory for removal to Ocala, where Mr. Jackson and family will hereafter reside.

Mr. Jackson is one of the oldest citizens of Gainesville. He has seen the town grow from a country village to a little city, and he and his popular wife and family have many friends here who will regret to give them up. They will leave to-morrow, and may peace and prosperity be their lot in their new home.

Romeo and Juliette.

Shakespeare's great play, "Romeo and Juliette," was presented at the opera house Friday night, and those who were present say it was the grandest affair of the season, and the presentation was to a full house.

THE CHAUTAUQUA. Gainesville Florida Chautauqua Open- ed Sunday.

The Gainesville Florida Chautauqua, to embrace a period of seventeen days, from February 28 to March 15 inclusive, opened in grand and appropriate style in the Tabernacle last Sunday afternoon, and at night another session was largely attended. The Parker Concert Company delighted the people with some of its best selections, and it being an occasion for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Revs. Hay, Presbyterian; Carpenter, Methodist; and Elson, Baptist, made appropriate remarks.

The meetings yesterday morning and afternoon were well attended, and the crowd last night was immense. The entertainment by the famous Parker Concert Company, was one of the best ever enjoyed by the people of Gainesville.

The program for today and tonight is a good one, and every one who fails to attend will surely miss something good.

W. J. BRYAN'S NOTED SPEECH

J. M. Barrs Has Had It Printed
In Pamphlet Form.

WRITE BARRS FOR A COPY.

It Will Be Mailed Free to Any One Who May Request It.

To the Democratic Voters of the Second Congressional District of Florida:

I am having printed in pamphlet form, for preservation, copies of the great speech delivered by William Jennings Bryan in this city February 16th, 1904. I had a stenographer take it down, and it is being printed exactly as delivered to the largest gathering of Democrats ever assembled in Florida.

It is such a speech as will give pleasure to every Democrat, and, indeed, to every person who is opposed to corruption in politics, to read. It appeared to me to be so very appropriate to present condition in Florida, that I decided to print and distribute it among the voters of this Congressional District.

Whether or not one agrees with Bryan in every detail, all who realize the dangers to our political system, growing out of the injection of corruption funds to an extent heretofore unknown, will appreciate his warnings and powerfully expressed protests against the corruption which is such a marked feature of this day.

The attempts of the Trusts and corrupt corporations to control even the Democratic Party in a State supposed to be so thoroughly democratic as Florida, through the corruption of every purchasable newspaper in the State, regardless of cost, and the use of an unlimited amount of money available to secure the services of every corruptible voter in Florida, makes the dissemination of so powerful an appeal for honesty and decent politics peculiarly desirable.

We are having a test in Florida of the question whether corruption of a large majority of the newspapers of the State by Trust money, and the unstinted use of an unlimited campaign corruption fund among the voters, and the employment of a horde of hirelings to travel from point to point, and go from voter to voter to mislead and corrupt them, can, in a democratic State like Florida, in a white democratic primary election, prevail over true democratic principles and honest men and decent methods, in the face of such appeals to the conscience and moral nature of the people as are made by Bryan in that speech.

For one, I have no doubt that honest and decent methods and true democracy will prevail. I have the utmost confidence in the intelligence, honesty and democratic principles of the white democratic voters of Florida. I was born among them. I have lived among them all my life; and I know them. A people, taking the masses as they come, naturally more intelligent, more honest or more faithful to their political convictions than the native Floridians, I do not believe can be found anywhere on the face of the earth; and no other State has received a class of immigrants of better character than those who have come from among the best citizenship of every other State in the Union and settled in Florida. I am sure that no electorate on earth can be found, before whom it would be safer to submit the questions to the white democratic primary in Florida May 10, 1904.

I am confident that the corrupting influences now, and for so long, at work in this State are doomed to such a defeat that they will not again, for many years at least, attempt the corruption of the Florida Democracy.

I do desire, however, to do all in my power, regardless of consequences to my own candidacy, to have the question fairly, honestly and intelligently presented to you, to the end that no possible doubt of the result may remain.

Mr. Bryan's speech, in pamphlet form, I take pleasure in presenting as a contribution to the cause of honesty, decency and true democracy; and I will mail a copy to any one. A request will bring it.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. BARRS.
